A June Moonrise

(By Clinton Scollard.)

Ethereal and mystical and cool,
Between the hills the sky was like a pool;
And to the hidden thrush's rapture-tune
Blossomed therein, to glorify the June,
Night's immemorial lotus flower, the moon.

June Brides In El Paso As Numerous As They Are Pretty

Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Miss N. K. Kenan to Eugene W. Gill, of Okmulgee, Okla. The wedding will take place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kenan, 1714 Boulevard, at high noon, on Wednesday, June 23.

The young couple will take the Golden State Limited for an extended tour of the northern and eastern states and Canada, and will be at home in Okmulgee, Okla., after Sept. 1st.

The wedding of Miss Mary A. Maurer and B. D. Nichols was quietly solemnized at the home of the bride's sisters, the Misses Gertrude and Florence Maurer, 1911 North El Paso street, at 4:30 p. m., June 20. Rev. C. L. Overstreet performed the ceremony. The home was beautifully decorated with sweet peas, roses and palms.

The bride was gowned in white embroidered chiffon, and her going away gown was tan satinet.

An elegant luncheon was served before the couple left for Chihuahua, Mexico, where they will make their home for the present.

Miss Maurer is the daughter of Mrs. C. Maurer, a popular member of the American colony residing in Chihuahua, and the groom is a mining man of Mexico and Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Caspary, sr., announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Willie to William Francis Dwyer on Thursday evening, July 7, at 6 o'clock at their residence, 1907 Montana street.

They will be at home after July 9th at Granger, Texas.

Saturday evening at 6 o'clock C. A. Rotsford and Miss Daisy Goldworthy were married at 800 North Oregon street. The bride recently arrived from Cincinnati, and was met here by the groom to be married. Rev. C. S. Wright, of Trinity M. E. church, performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Rotsford will make their home in Globe, Ariz., where the groom is engaged in business.

Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock John W. Rafter and Miss Elizabeth Beebe were married at the parsonage of the First Presbyterian church. Only a few intimate friends were in attendance at the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. C. L. Overstreet.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wolf, accompanied by their daughter, Leola Gale, will soon leave for Jacksonville, Fla., to attend the marriage of their son, Alfred Wolf, to Miss Hannah Myerson.

Mrs. Gale will spend part of the summer at Palm Beach, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Wolf will accompany their son to his home in Cleveland, O., where they will visit for a short time. From there they go to New York, and will sail July 12 for Europe, visiting Holland, Germany, France and England, and will be absent a number of months.

The announcement of the marriage of Miss Lillian Frances McLane and R. L. McKie, which occurred on April 25, will come as very much of a surprise to their friends. It was the wish of the young people to keep the wedding secret until the arrival of the bride's father, who was detained in Mexico. The marriage took place at the parsonage of the First Baptist church. Rev. Robert Bruce Smith performing the ceremony.

The bride, who is a most attractive young woman, is the daughter of L. C. McLane, and has lived in El Paso a number of years. The groom has been recently at the head of the San Antonio meat company, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. McKie will leave the latter part of this month for a two months' tour of the northwest.

A pretty church wedding was solemnized this morning at 9:30 o'clock when Miss Mamie V. Kelly and Jack V. Hughes were united in marriage at the church of the Immaculate Conception. Only a few friends were in attendance at the ceremony, at which Rev. Father Roy officiated. The bride, who is an attractive young woman, was beautifully gowned in white crepe de chine. She wore a white picture hat trimmed with plumes and carried bride's roses.

Miss Lydia Schubert, the maid of honor, was also a card case in exquisite silver design.

Mr. and Mrs. Hasam left Saturday for New York, and after a visit there, will sail for Vera Cruz, with a stop off in Cuba. They will make their future home in Mexico City.

Miss Marion Hughes and M. R. Hemley were quietly married yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the parsonage of the First Presbyterian church. Rev. C. L. Overstreet performed the ceremony.

Walter Arnold, Will Marr, Dr. L. G. Witherspoon, Dr. H. H. Starke, H. S. Potter, W. V. Sterling.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stolaroff, of 819 North Oregon street, gave a delightful reception in honor of their son, Fabian, who recently arrived from children in the afternoon from 2 to 6. Favorite games were played, and those who won the prizes were Marion Calman, Harold Lapowski and Minnie Silverman. Refreshments were served, which the young folks enjoyed immensely. When they were about to leave, each one was presented with a card, candy as a souvenir. Beautiful flowers and ferns were artistically arranged in the dining room and parlor.

In the evening from 8 to 12 Mr. and Mrs. J. Stolaroff entertained the grown folks. Though the musicians failed to arrive, the company nevertheless enjoyed themselves to the utmost. Delicious refreshments were served. At the close of the evening the company enjoyed themselves in partaking of champagne.

Those enjoying the afternoon were: Misses Grace and Lucile Mayer, Bertha and Thelma Simon, Birdie and Honey Krupp, Caroline Block, Mildred Stolaroff, Ethel Goldoft, Kate Merkin, Ruth Schwartz, Jennie Stolaroff, Eva, Ruth and Minnie Silverman, Marion Calman, Ida Krupp, Rita Guterman, Miss Rosestine, Miss Segall, Mrs. Rosestine, Mrs. Guterman and Mrs. Orastine, Messrs. WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS.

The W. C. T. U. social and commemorative flag day meeting Friday was unusually interesting.

The devotional exercises read by Mrs. M. L. Golden and the prayers by Mrs. J. W. Hock and "Mickey" they were very impressive and helpful. The Misses Heermans and Hardie gave a most enjoyable duet.

Miss Kitty Wagon and Miss Eva Wagon sang the "Star Spangled Banner" very effectively, and the solo by Miss Ethel Taylor was also much enjoyed.

The meeting was honored by Mrs. Mary Ross Keltner, who gave the history of the flag, as emanating from her family.

Mrs. Alice P. Thompson, in her usual delightful style, recited a "Revolutionary War Sermon," which was delivered by an English minister who became an American patriot. This sermon made mention of the "Boston Tea Party," which was an inspiration to the president to hastily order tea to accompany the delightful refreshments.

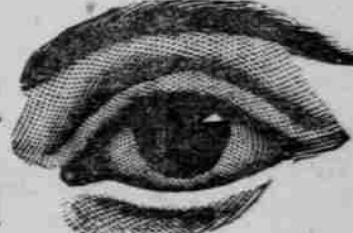

"Tangle Doodle" was given in spirited style by Mrs. Lila Liffert, who was in charge of the musical program. The social hour was much enjoyed and the many visitors were warmly welcomed.

The Shakespeare Reading club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. W. I. Watson.

The Women's Aid society of the First M. E. church will hold its regular monthly session at the home of Mrs. W. H. Pickles, 1117 Boulevard, on
